

Canadian Municipal Government File (NCM™)

Total Records 40,920

File Description

The Canadian Municipal Government file provides a complete list of all mayors and executive office managers within each municipality across Canada. There are 4500 unique locations to mail to. This is an excellent list for targeting senior government officials within each municipality. The federal and provincial governments are currently transferring more operational responsibility of programs and services to municipalities. This translates into increased purchasing power for products and services. This file is a must for businesses who wish to tap into this lucrative market.
